11. Priority Employee Creditors

Pursuant to Section 556 of the Corporations Act 2001 ("Act"), employee entitlements have a priority over other unsecured creditors. Mr Binetter's ROCAP does not disclose any priority employee creditors. To date we have not been made aware of any priority employee claims.

Employee Entitlements & the Fair Entitlements Guarantee (FEG)

If it is expected that insufficient funds will be recovered to enable a full distribution to employees, the federal government's Fair Entitlements Guarantee (FEG) scheme may be of assistance to those employees.

The FEG scheme assists employees with outstanding entitlements that become due because of employers becoming insolvent.

The scheme provides assistance with regard to the following employee entitlements:

- up to a maximum of 13 weeks unpaid wages for the period prior to the appointment of the Liquidator;
- unpaid annual leave;
- unpaid long service leave;
- up to a maximum of 5 weeks unpaid payment in lieu of notice; and
- up to a maximum of 4 weeks unpaid redundancy entitlement for each completed year of service.

If employees need to contact the FEG department, the details are below

Web site: www.ag.gov.au/industrial-relations/fair-entitlements-guarantee/Pages/default.aspx
E-mail: feg@jobs.gov.au
Phone: 1300 135 040

In the event that it is established that there are outstanding employee entitlements our office will be liaising with the FEG department to enable that distribution to be made to employees. In the interim, employees should contact us with details of their outstanding entitlements (if applicable).

3. Investigations

Part of our role as Liquidators is conducting investigations into various matters and to advise creditors on whether there may be amounts recoverable from any voidable transaction or insolvency trading claims.

We are also required to examine possible offences and report our findings to ASIC. To date, no report has been issued to ASIC.

At this stage, we have not finalised our investigations into voidable transactions and potential insolvent trading. Further, we have not found any offences committed by the officers of the Company.

Adequacy of books and records

Section 286 of the Act requires a company to keep written financial records that correctly record and explain its transactions, financial position and performance, to enable true and fair financial statements to be prepared and audited. Financial records must be kept for seven years after the completion of the transactions to which the records pertain.

On 5 July 2019, we requested all books and records of the Company in Mr Binetter's possession. On 21 July 2019 Mr Binetter advised no records were available due to a number of re-locations (domestic and international), a fire (2004) and flooding (2016) that has resulted in records being lost or destroyed from 2004. As mentioned earlier in this Report, we are advised the Company ceased trading in or around 2015.

Subsequently we sent a Section 530B notice to Mr Binetter on 3 September 2019 again requesting all books and records of the Company be delivered within 5 business days to our office. No books and records were received from Mr Binetter within this timeframe. Finally, we wrote to ASIC requesting their assistance in obtaining all books and records of the Company on 16 Sept 2019. We are currently liaising with ASIC in this regard.

In conclusion our preliminary assessment in the absence of any books and records being provided to our office is that the Company did not maintain adequate records to comply with its obligation under section 286 of the Act.

Report under section 533 of the Act

A report under section 533 of the Act may be submitted to ASIC. Although the contents of the report are confidential, we can confirm that it will address, amongst other things, any suspected breaches of the Act and other offences by the director. We will assist ASIC should it decide to undertake further investigations in response to our report.

Solvency Examination

Section 95A of the Act states that a company is solvent if, and only if, it can pay its debts as and when they fall due.

At this stage, we have not been able to determine the solvency position of the Company as we have not been provided with the books and records of the Company.

To form a more conclusive opinion on the timing and cause(s) of the Company's insolvency, it would be necessary to undertake the following investigations:

- Obtain as much evidence as possible in relation to the Company's financial position and performance as well as other qualitative indicators of insolvency, such as recovery action by creditors and arrears of taxation and other statutory liabilities. This would require me to source further books and records;
- Performing an analysis of the Company's financial position and performance to identify the point at which the Company could no longer pay its liabilities as and when they fell due for payment, as part of which it may be necessary to reconstruct and/or prepare financial accounts for the Company; and

- Assessing the probative value of, and drawing conclusions from, any qualitative indicators of insolvency.

Alternatively, we note that the potential failure to maintain proper books and records in accordance with section 286 of the Act (as discussed above) may provide a rebuttable presumption of insolvency. A Liquidator can rely upon this presumption in, amongst other things, an application for compensation for insolvent trading. If the presumption is available, then the Company could be presumed to have been insolvent from the time it failed to retain sufficient books and records (up to a period of 7 years prior to the Liquidation). We consider that it would be prudent to obtain legal advice to ascertain whether the rebuttable presumption is in fact available in the Liquidation.

Insolvent Trading – Section 588G of the Act

Pursuant to section 588G of the Act, a director has a positive duty to prevent a company from incurring debts when there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the company will be unable to pay its debts as and when they fall due (i.e. it is insolvent).

Section 588M of the Act provides that a Liquidator is entitled to recover compensation from a director equal to the loss or damage suffered by the Company as a result of a breach of section 588G.

The following investigations are required to determine whether there is a claim against the Director for insolvent trading and, if there is, whether there is any merit in pursuing the claim:

- We need to conclusively determine when the Company first became insolvent, or in the alternate, we would need to confirm that the presumption of insolvency is available in this liquidation due to deficiencies in the books and records. As outlined in the section headed “Solvency Examination”, further investigations are required to form a view on these matters.
- It is necessary to quantify the unpaid debts of the Company which were incurred after the Company became insolvent (or was presumed to have been insolvent), which would determine the value of the claim for insolvent trading. We cannot complete this task until a conclusion has been reached on the Company’s insolvency.
- To justify the considerable cost of pursuing an insolvent trading claim against the Director (which is completely separate from any action which ASIC can take for the offence of insolvent trading), we must be satisfied that the Director has the financial capacity to satisfy a claim; and
- Lastly, we need to have regard to the possibility that, even if we have an insolvent trading claim against the Director, he may be entitled to invoke the defences in section 588H. This issue has yet to be considered.

Voidable Transactions

The main type of voidable transactions are:

- Unfair preference payments (section 588FA of the Act);
- Uncommercial transactions (section 588FB of the Act); and
- Unreasonable director-related transactions (section 588FDA of the Act).

At this stage we have not identified any transactions of this nature. However, to date our investigations have been somewhat limited due to the lack of books and records available.

Further inquiries relating to the winding up that may need to be undertaken

The following activities need to be undertaken:

- Secure all books and records of the Company;
- Complete our investigations into the Company's affairs;
- Commence any recovery actions that may be available with respect to further investigations surrounding both insolvent trading claims and voidable transactions;
- Complete and lodge our statutory section 533(1) report to ASIC and await their response regarding potential funding for investigations; and
- If required, we will issue a further report to creditors on the outcome of our investigations.

If creditors have a particular matter, they believe should be investigated please contact Patrick Skippen of our office on (02) 9210 1711 or via email at pskippen@wexted.com.

4. Likelihood of a Dividend

At this stage of the Liquidation, there will be no dividend to creditors unless recoveries can be made from a preference or insolvent trading claim against the Director. We will provide creditors with a further update once we have completed our investigations.

5. Remuneration and Disbursements

We note the following resolutions were approved by creditors via a proposal without meeting which formed part of our initial notice to creditors dated 12 July 2019:

- 1) "That the remuneration of the Joint and Several Liquidators for the period from 30 June 2019 to 9 July 2019, calculated on hours spent by Joint and Several Liquidators and their partners and their staff, at the hourly rates detailed in the schedule of rates forming part of the Initial Remuneration Notice provided to creditors, be approved in the amount of $4,818.50.75 (inclusive of GST), and that the Joint and Several Liquidators can draw the remuneration"
- 2) "That the remuneration of the Joint and Several Liquidators for the period from 10 July 2019 to the finalisation of the liquidation, calculated on hours spent by the Joint and Several Liquidators, their partners and their staff, at the hourly rates detailed in the schedule of rates forming part of the Initial Remuneration Notice provided to creditors, be approved in the amount of $9,181.50 (inclusive of GST), and that the Joint and Several Liquidators can draw the remuneration on a monthly basis or as required."
- 3) "That the internal disbursements of the Joint and Several Liquidators for the period from 30 June 2019 to the finalisation of the liquidation, calculated utilising the rates of charge detailed in the Initial Remuneration Notice provided to creditors, be approved in the amount of $1,000.00 (inclusive of GST), and that the Joint and Several Liquidators can draw the internal disbursements on a monthly basis or as required."

No resolutions are being put to creditors as part of this report. Further resolutions may be put to creditors in the future.

6. Next steps in the Liquidation

We will proceed with the Liquidation, including:

- Obtain books and records of the Company;
- Complete our investigations into the Company's affairs;
- Commence recovery actions in respect of voidable transactions and insolvent trading (subject to the provision of books and records and funding);
- Complete our reporting to ASIC and request the Company to be deregistered; and
- If required, we will issue a further report to creditors on the results of our investigations

We expect to finalise the Liquidation within 6 months of the date of this report.
